Archetypes
Scout Not all rogues live in the city. Scouts frequently roam the wilderness, often banding together as bandits, but sometimes serving as guides, as trailblazers, or as companions to a ranger or barbarian warrior. More comfortable with sneaking and hiding outdoors, the scout is still effective in the city and the dungeon.	[Paizo Inc. - Advanced Player's Guide, p.134]
Swashbuckler A paragon of mobile swordplay, the swashbuckler is a rogue who focuses almost exclusively on honing her skill at arms and perfecting daring acrobatic moves and elaborate flourishes that border on performance.	[Paizo Inc. - Advanced Player's Guide, p.135]

Special Attacks

Sneak Attack (Ex) [Paizo Inc. - Core Rulebook, p.68]

If you can catch an opponent when he is unable to defend himself effectively from your attack, you can strike a vital spot for extra damage. Your attack deals 2d6 points of extra damage anytime your target would be denied a Dexterity bonus to AC, or when you flank your target. Should you score a critical hit with a sneak attack, this extra damage is not multiplied. Ranged attacks can count as sneak attacks only if the target is within 30 feet. With a weapon that deals nonlethal damage, you can make a sneak attack that deals nonlethal damage instead of lethal damage. You cannot use a weapon that deals lethal damage to deal nonlethal damage in a sneak attack, not even with the usual -4 penalty. You must be able to see the target well enough to pick out a vital spot and must be able to reach such a spot. You cannot sneak attack while striking a creature with concealment.

Special Qualities
Daring (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Advanced Player's Guide, p.135]
You gain a +1 morale bonus on Acrobatics checks and saving throws against fear.
Evasion (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Core Rulebook]
You can avoid damage from many area-effect attacks. If you make a successful Reflex saving throw against an attack that normally deals half damage on a successful save, you instead take no damage. Evasion can only be used if you are wearing light armor or no armor. If you are helpless, you do not gain the benefit of evasion.
Fast (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Advanced Race Guide, p.115]
Goblins have a base speed of 30 ft.

Finesse Training (Ex)

[Paizo Inc. - Pathfinder
Unchained, p.20]

At 1st level, a rogue gains Weapon Finesse as a bonus feat. In addition, starting at 3rd level, she can select any one type of weapon that can be used with Weapon Finesse (such as rapiers or daggers). Once this choice is made, it cannot be changed. Whenever she makes a successful melee attack with the selected weapon, she adds her Dexterity modifier instead of her Strength modifier to the damage roll. If any effect would prevent the rogue from adding her Strength modifier to the damage roll, she does not add her Dexterity modifier. The rogue can select a second weapon at 11th level and a third at 19th level.

Martial Training (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Advanced Player's Guide, p.135]
You may select one martial weapon to add to your list of weapon proficiencies. In addition, you may take the combat trick rogue talent up to two times.
Skilled (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Advanced Race Guide, p.18]
Goblins gain a +4 racial bonus on Ride and Stealth checks.
Underhanded* (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Pathfinder Unchained, p.70]
A rogue with this talent gains a +4 circumstance bonus on all Sleight of Hand checks made to conceal a weapon. Furthermore, if she makes a sneak attack during the surprise round using a concealed weapon that her opponent didn't know about, she does not have to roll sneak attack damage, and the sneak attack deals maximum damage. A rogue can only use the underhanded talent a number of times per day equal to her Charisma modifier (minimum 0).
Weapon Choice (Dagger) (Ex)	[Paizo Inc. - Pathfinder Unchained]
Dexterity to Damage with Dagger

Feats
Martial Weapon Proficiency (Kukri)	[Paizo Inc. - Core Rulebook, p.130]
You understand how to use your chosen martial weapon in combat. You make attack rolls with the selected weapon normally (without the non-proficient penalty).
Quick Draw	[Paizo Inc. - Core Rulebook, p.131]
You can draw weapons faster than most. You can draw a weapon as a free action instead of as a move action. You can draw a hidden weapon (see the Sleight of Hand skill) as a move action. A character who has selected this feat may throw weapons at his full normal rate of attacks (much like a character with a bow). Alchemical items, potions, scrolls, and wands cannot be drawn quickly using this feat.
Two-Weapon Fighting	[Paizo Inc. - Core Rulebook, p.136]
You can fight with a weapon in each of your hands. You can make one extra attack each round with the secondary weapon. Your penalties on attack rolls for fighting with two weapons are reduced. The penalty for your primary hand lessens by 2 and the one for your off hand lessens by 6. See Two-Weapon Fighting in Chapter 8.
Weapon Finesse	[Paizo Inc. - Core Rulebook, p.136]
You are trained in using your agility in melee combat, as opposed to brute strength. With a light weapon, rapier, whip, or spiked chain made for a creature of your size category, you may use your Dexterity modifier instead of your Strength modifier on attack rolls. If you carry a shield, its armor check penalty applies to your attack rolls.
